

NSW HIGHER SCHOOL CERTIFICATE (NSW HSC)

The New South Wales Higher School Certificate (NSW HSC) is a Pre-U Matriculation program in New South Wales, Australia. The Higher School Certificate is issued by the Board of Studies, New South Wales.

As in the AUSMAT and SAM programs, the New South Wales HSC Program is also recognised for entry into universities in New Zealand, USA, Canada, Russia, Germany and private institutions in Malaysia.

Entry Requirements:

SPM / GCSE 'O' level or equivalent with 5 credits (including English, Mathematics / Science and a pass in Bahasa Melayu). Forecast results are accepted.

Duration:

11 Months

Intake:

January

Exam Date:

October / November

Fee:

RM10,500 - RM11,550

Assessment:

50% Internal Assessment based on coursework, 50% on Final External Examination

Subjects:

English - 2 units

Mathematics - 2 units

Mathematics Extension 1 - 3 units

Mathematics Extension 2 - 4 units

Biology - 2 units

Chemistry - 2 units

Physics - 2 units

Information Process & Technology - 2 units

Accounts (TAFE NSW) - 2 units

Business Studies - 2 units

Economics - 2 units

- Student must take a total number of 5-6 subjects to make up a minimum of 10 units and English as a Second Language must be included in the 10 units.

Note : This information is current as at July 2009.